

Please do not change the current "no call" regulations. If I wish to contact banks, etc. I will do so on my own accord. If I've closed an account it will be for my own reasons and I do not wish to have conversations with that bank for the next 18 months on what they failed to do to keep me as a customer in the first place.

Thank you.